Gregory escorted a party of merry little girls to Louisville Sunday. They were the guests of Mrs. Hudson while in the city. Mr. Chas. Mooreman, Pettville, was in the city yesterday. He reports heavy frost in his section and fears the wheat is badly damaged. Delia's Coffee Economist makes your coffee last twice as long. Any pot. Free circular. Arthur L. Dohs & Co., Grant Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

The World's Fair Tests showed us baking powder no pure or so good as the Royal.

Miss Lella Henly went to Louisville Monday. And Judge Mercer's been down to Glendale again—Well. Bill Stuart is in out at Hardinsburg serving on the grand jury and talking free silver. Charlie Skillman went to Hardinsburg Monday on his wheel. He had a pretty hard pull of it too. W. S. Ashby brought the first strawberries to market Monday. They are selling at ten cents a quart. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bower returned from Henderson Monday evening, where they have been the guests of their daughter, Mrs. John Burks. Boys' angles' outfit, 1 shirt, 3 jackets, 1 pair, reel, 30 feet linen line, 3 fish hooks, 1 float, 1 sinker, all complete for 15 cents—Sulzer's. The Patton yard began work yesterday and is now running under a full head of steam. Mr. Patton has just closed a contract for 700,000 bushels. An old-fashioned country ham, such as we used to have in the good old time, was presented to this office last week by one of its good old time friends, Mrs. Daniel Friel. Rita Evans has brought suit in the District Circuit against Mrs. Sallie L. Dams, executrix of S. M. Dams, deceased, for $3,000 claimed to be due him on an old note and bond.

Eggs for sale from pure bred lines, Light Brahma, Buff Cochins, Silver Spangled Hamburgs, White Leghorns, Brown Leghorns, Red Caps and B. Plymouth Rocks. Isaac Holden, Cloverport, Ky. Mr. L. J. Early, editor of the Campbell Telephone, and Miss Mamie Baker, of Hardinsville, were married last week. The early bird has been a long time catching the worm but like the June-bug he gets there all the same. Mr. James Lyons, of Jolly's Station, is being asked to make the next meeting of the Legislature on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Lyons—one of our best and most substantial citizens, a good Democrat and would make a good representative. The marriage of Miss Tina Lett of this city and Mr. William J. Mattingly, of Davies county, was solemnized in a beautiful and impressive manner at the Catholic church by Father Hendrick yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Immediately after the ceremony and mass, the happy couple left on the train for their future home, taking with them the best wishes of many relatives and friends.

Mr. Winebrinner was in Louisville a few days last week.

John Hook has been appointed deputy sheriff by S. A. Fato.

Arch Goodman is delivering ice here about per week.

Mr. Cleary Delavan was in Louisville a few days last week.

Wood, wool, wool—have you any? Then take it to J. A. Witt.

Mr. Levi Dremser, of New Albany, Ind., came down on the train Monday.

Bring your wool to J. A. Witt's and get cheap goods and your debts.

Rev. S. K. Bredding will preach out at Antioch church next Saturday night.

Mr. Fred Fraize and Miss Murray came up from Cloverport last Sunday.

Mr. June Marshall lost twelve hundred dollars recently by the outcrops.

All may claim, all may please. If arrayed in dainty, stylish suits sold by J. A. Witt.

Mr. Jimmy Kincheol makes a neat display of his stock of jewelry in his new quarters.

Clark Owen Cunningham purchased W. B. Hardin's house and lot here last week at $700.

J. W. Payne has been appointed Administrator of the estate of Samuel Davidson, deceased.

If it is pure, fresh, good, clean groceries you want, don't fail to examine the stock of T. C. Lewis.

Clayton Beard has been appointed a member of the board of town trustees, via, Ward re-elected.

Hon. J. C. Blackham has been invited to speak here on the Fourth of July at the Catholic picnic.

Young Tucker, who had the deputy sheriff's risk in the Hardinsville district, is in his resignation last week.

J. B. Cox is at Owensboro today as a delegate to the Democratic Convention to nominate Railroad Commissioner.

There was another large crowd out at the College last Saturday night to attend the exercises of the Literary Society.

Will Smith and Squire Charley Mattingly are at work redacting the public roads in this Magisterial district this week.

It is reported that Hobbs & Mattingly are going to build a store house at Kirk and move their business to that point.

Suits that touch every need—plain, practical and stylish. The price, well, we'll say it right when we tell you—J. A. Witt.

Mr. Ernest Robertson was in town last Monday. He says it is all a mistake about his becoming a candidate for the Legislature.

A full line of everything, fine coffees, molasses, bacon, lard, in fact, everything needed in a family. Call and see my stock—T. C. Lewis.

Mr. Julian Brown at Harned Station, can furnish pipe supplies the coming season. Those desiring such goods can call on him at Harned Station.

Mrs. T. D. Kingston went to Louisville last Saturday. Her father, Judge Barton, who has been ill for some time, is no better, and his death is expected at any hour.

I have now my grocery store open, ready to furnish the people anything in good, fresh groceries at the lowest prices. Come and see what I have—T. C. Lewis.

Something or somebody is getting in their work on the dogs of the town. There was found one of the streets the other morning and dragged out to the bone yard.

Mr. T. C. Lewis has gone into the poultry business on a large scale. He has sprung out of two hundred young chickens which will be ready to go on the market in about three weeks.

IRVINGTON.
Mrs. Smith's sister is visiting here. Mrs. Marshall's sister and child are visiting here. Mrs. Jno. Mooreman has returned from a visit to relatives. A letter from Miss Ella Felt says she is having a fine time, but pines for her Irvington home.

Mr. Piggitt came up from Hardinsburg last Friday to be present at the regular meeting of the R. V. R. C.

Report reached us that W. W. Williams, former agent at the depot, is married. We wonder if this be true.

A large crowd in attendance at the stereoscopic exhibition last evening and all seemed to enjoy the views very much.

The cold weather may be fine for the out-crop in his relatives march yet it certainly is not adapted to newly bedded hot house plants.

Mr. E. B. Froehner left Thursday for a short trip to Cincinnati, after which she goes for a prolonged visit to her son at Broadhead, Ky.

Rev. W. R. Cullon filled his regular appointment Sunday morning. Rev. Snyder, (the Bewleyville Baptist church minister) preached at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Charlie Mooreman, we are pleased to see, able to be out again. She was at church today and looks remarkably well since her long visit of nearly six months.

Mrs. Manford has gone to Chicago to spend some time, probably the summer, with her daughter, Mrs. Pusey. We miss her benign face from the regular church worship.

Mr. and Mrs. Washington entertained a number to dinner Sunday. Among them were Miss Lucy Frank and Miss Jenn Harlin also Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Wimp. Mr. Kendrick was their guest while here.

A goodly number of Bewleyville's young people came down to the entertainment Saturday night. Unfortunately they arrived late, missing almost the entire exhibition. We were sorry for this, although much pleased to see them.

Quite a fall in the mercury yesterday, sent the lazarist in search of foot gear, and the busy housewife, who had put in the summer grates were forced to renew the winter ones and now, rather than palm leaf fans are the ruling necessity.

The Rev. Wm. D. Bland Clerk met at Mrs. Ken Watlen's yesterday as pre-arranged. An interesting meeting was the result. Refreshments were served in Mrs. Watlen's characteristic, hospitable manner which added much to the zest of the enterprise.

At Sunday School this morning Mr. Kendrick gave a short but timely talk to the school. Mr. Kendrick leaves the reputation as being a fine Sunday School worker, being Superintendent of the Broadway Methodist church in Louisville, a position held for many years.

Mr. Washington leaves today with Little Logan Helm for her brother's home at Spears. Mr. Helm will soon wed a Kansas City lady, and we are all sorry to have Little Logan's stay a permanent one. We feel sorry that the Washingtons are called upon to give up the bright little fellow, who has been with them since infancy and has entwined himself into their hearts as an own child.

When a farmer needs a binder, mower or hay rake what should he first do? Decide to buy the best and lightest drive. If he will do this and will examine the ball bearing Leaning Pony Binder and Ideal Mower he will never pass it by as they are sold by the Irvington Milling Company who will take pleasure in showing it to you. Remember the best is the cheapest in the long run.

Mr. Allen, candidate for Representative, passed through here on his way to Louisville, Ga. and Hardinsburg, accompanied by Mr. Bosley, and had long talk with Bob Jolly, the result of which could not be ascertained but in an interview with our correspondent, Mr. Jolly said the result would be to be youth against old age this year in the Republican ranks, and knowing his idea is for progression, we presume to say, that when the time comes he will say, "give the young men a chance."

Considerable excitement which turned to amusement was occasioned last Tuesday morning by a run-away team belonging to Mr. Willie Harlin, of Rosetta. The mules became frightened at the train and began running when the driver was unable to stop them so he stood erect in the wagon and let them have a run of the following circuit: Out Carroll street to First, on First to Walnut, through Walnut to Second and down Second to Carroll street again, making the circuit three times and were only stopped then by the driver turning them suddenly into the Scale lane. No damage except a very tired pair of mules and a plucky driver. Mr. Harlin's two teams were then loaded with farming implements, fertilizer and binder twine and sold by the Irvington Milling Company, who seem to have the sole trade on such goods in this section. The fact that they offer nothing but the best goods which is fully guaranteed by the Manufacturers and they also add their personal guarantee to sustain. The Will Company appreciates such trade as their old friend, Mr. Harlin and all others that buy goods purely upon the merits of the goods. If you need anything it will pay you to call and see them before purchasing elsewhere.

GLENDANE.
Miss Amanda Dean has returned from Louisville. Raymond Menor spent Sunday at Rock Vale. Everybody has gone to Hardinsburg to attend court. Frank Peyton, Falls of Rough, visited in town Sunday. Rev. Rutledge did not fill the pulpit at Goshen Sunday. Miss Amanda Dean has purchased a new Decker piano. The present manager, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Crier spent Sunday at D. C. Mooreman's. Mr. Gregory, wheel-maker at Cloverport, was in town last week. Willis Green, Falls of Rough, spent Sunday at Mr. Johnson Deane's. Wade Fife, Burns, was the guest of Miss Monica L. Hunter Sunday. Rev. Lambuth and wife, of the Falls, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mooreman a part of last week. Vaccination "took" on Master Owen Hunter and the greater part of last week by a "right tick" boy. W. C. Mooreman has purchased a fine buggy and merry is the girl who drives with him and his spirited animal. Julian Brown was here last week. He says he will run another excursion to Louisville some time this summer. Miss Lulu Vessels, after several days' visiting here, went to Hardinsburg Sunday afternoon accompanied by Mr. V. O. Burton. Overcasts were doing duty Sunday beneath the heads where lately the cool summer hat was hanging in the hot sunshine. It was Mr. Bob Robertson's daughter, Stella, who wore the laurels at the last spelling contest. The present manager of "Upson College" will ever report to the News. It is winnowed Sallie who is one of our brightest pupils. It has been thought for some time that Gabe Smith, of this place, has been working towards getting a place in the Hardinsburg jail. Recent actions confirm such thoughts and after due trial, he was taken up Sunday and turned over to the jailer. Gabe's finger stick to things not lawfully his. There was a very pleasant party given at Mr. Bob Weller's Saturday night. It was for the younger portion of the town young people. The get-together-in-kind was not there. His "best" could not go and he would not go either. Such devotion should be encouraged and here's a pen that never fails to mention such things. Report comes to us that Deputy Sheriff Tucker refuses to serve as tax collector and that his resignation has been tendered. A better person than Sheriff Tucker was never elected to anything and it seems that his helping to defraud as good a man as Rhodes certainly entitles him to a reward and his reward.

Glendale took on a right good-looking spin, imbued a little and got tricky Saturday afternoon. Constable Carlisle made a few arrests, Magistrate Lela was obliged and until half past eleven at night, justice was weighing out her sentences. "The way of the transgressor is hard" and while Squire Lela reminds them of it, they had better remember also that they are another "law" that "barnest with fire and brimstone."

Judge Mercer was in the neighborhood on legal business last week. He remained over night with a friend, talked everybody to sleep, and then went to sleep himself or talked on all night. We can't say which he did for he was up next morning before any of the household and as merry as the proverbial lark, somebody says he is endowed with perpetual youth or else he has been rejuvenated. It's our opinion the cause exists right here at—but we are under promise not to say more.

As reported last week, Sidney Williams has been holding down things at the depot. He boards in the suburbs with Mr. Willie Owen. As it is some distance to the depot, he has been the gentleman who did not move his clothes out, but left them in the depot. Somebody relieved him of the task by getting into the depot one night last week and carrying all his possessions away. The girls are struck on Mr. Williams' head, of course, some popularity can be overcome and cause trouble in this great world of ours.

We think Burns said, "The best laid plans of men and mice oft gang agley." Anyway the "gang" happened and the "agley" was ever after the most palatable correspondence for two weeks back. Some way he misinterpreted the never went to the party believing "agley" would not be there. He learned his mistake Sunday morning, and now the best of his time will have to be spent here there will be an incorrect statement kept some where. Young hearts, take courage, be ye not appalled. "Hallelujahs" follow seasons of greatest trial.
